

Have 6 Kids Written by Trevor Yates

[Verse]

I have six kids

Four bright lights shining in the dark

Two shadows lurk where the darkness dwells

Misguided souls trapped in their own hells

[Verse 2]

Worked my fingers every day to the bone

Dreaming they'd build empires of their own

four found the ladder two missed the step

In the throws of failure, they silently wept

[Verse 3]

Worked my fingers every day to the bone

Dreaming they'd build empires of their own

four found the ladder two missed the step

In the throws of failure they silently wept

[Verse 4]

Worked my fingers every day to the bone

Dreaming they'd build empires of their own

four found the ladder two missed the step

In the throws of failure they silently wept

[Chorus]

Four faces beaming pride in my eyes

Two lost souls haunted by lies

Perfection tarnished twisted and torn

Only wanted angels but two devils were born

[Verse 5]

Taught them to walk they went their own way

Some found sunshine some lost their way

Four standing tall bold and unafraid

Two caved within shadows they fade

[Verse 6]

when I stare at the night

Couldn't save all from the creeping fright

Loved them equal bond so deep

Some soared high some fell to the deep

[Chorus]

Four faces beaming pride in my eyes

Two lost souls haunted by lies

Perfection tarnished twisted and torn

Only wanted angels but two devils were born

[Verse 7]

Taught them to walk they went their own way

Some found sunshine some lost their way

Four standing tall bold unafraid

Two caved within shadows they fade

Only wanted angels

Only wanted angels
