

Hey Rob Written by Trevor Yates

[Verse]

Met you back in the smoke-filled halls
High school dreams written on the walls
Laughs and trouble we chased like kids
Bonds unspoken in the things we did

[Chorus]

Hey Rob we had a hell of a ride
Through the storms and stupid pride
Forty years of time never tore us apart
You're gone now but you're still in my heart

[Verse 2]

The world got loud but we stayed tight
Fighting through the gray for that flicker of light
You had my back and I had yours
Even when life came with closing doors

[Chorus]

Hey Rob we had a hell of a ride
Through the storms and stupid pride
Forty years of time never tore us apart
You're gone now but you're still in my heart

[Verse 3]

The world got loud but we stayed tight
Fighting through the gray for that flicker of light
You had my back and I had yours
Even when life came with closing doors

[Chorus]

Hey Rob we had a hell of a ride
Through the storms and stupid pride
Forty years of time never tore us apart
You're gone now but you're still in my heart

[Bridge]

Now I sit here with an empty glass
Trying to make sense of the years that passed
Gone so fast like a runaway train
But your voice runs wild through my brain

[Chorus]

Hey Rob we had a hell of a ride
Through the storms and stupid pride
Forty years of time never tore us apart
You're gone now but you're still in my heart
You're gone now but you're still in my heart