

Trevor Echo Written by Trevor Yates

[Verse]

Trevor's out there in the dark
Searching shadows chasing sparks
Drumbeats pound in empty streets
Hollow echoes broken dreams

[Verse 2]

Faces blur in neon lights
Trevor screams into the night
No one hears a single word
Silent cries that go unheard

[Chorus]

Trevor's rage is like a storm
Tearing through the night so torn
Restless soul no peace to find
Lost within his troubled mind

[Verse 3]

Gasoline and shattered glass
Living life too fast to last
Windswept roads and dusty trails
Cursed with stories never tell

[Verse 4]

Barroom brawls and whiskey shots
Rusty dreams and tangled knots
Trevor's eyes reflect the pain
Of a man who's gone insane

[Bridge]

Running wild on borrowed time
Haunted by the midnight chime
Clinging to the edge of truth
Fading echoes of his youth

[Chorus]

Trevor's rage is like a storm
Tearing through the night so torn
Restless soul no peace to find
Lost within his troubled mind

[Verse 5]

Gasoline and shattered glass
Living life too fast to last
Windswept roads and dusty trails
Cursed with stories never tell

[Verse 6]

Gasoline and shattered glass
Living life too fast to last
Windswept roads and dusty trails
Cursed with stories never tell

[Verse 7]

Barroom brawls and whiskey shots
Rusty dreams and tangled knots
Trevor's eyes reflect the pain
Of a man who's gone insane

[Bridge]

Running wild on borrowed time
Haunted by the midnight chime
Clinging to the edge of truth
Fading echoes of his youth
