

Waves of My Soul Written by Trevor Yates

[Verse]

Sand burns my feet on this cursed land
Waves crash screaming no solid stand
Sun's a demon tearing through the sky
Beach of dreams where the lost souls lie

[Chorus]

Salt in the air cuts deep through the night
Wind carries whispers of endless fights
I scream to the sea with a voice so raw
This beach ain't paradise it's a crooked law

[Verse 2]

Tides roll in choked with forgotten lies
Shells broken scattered like shattered ties
The moon mocks the mess we left behind
This stretch of sand holds ghosts of my kind

[Chorus]

Salt in the air cuts deep through the night
Wind carries whispers of endless fights
I scream to the sea with a voice so raw
This beach ain't paradise it's a crooked law

[Bridge]

Bruise-colored waves crash hard at my knees
Tainted by darkness these restless seas
Torn inside out by the shore's cruel pull
No shelter here just a ruthless lull

[Chorus]

Salt in the air cuts deep through the night
Wind carries whispers of endless fights
I scream to the sea with a voice so raw
This beach ain't paradise it's a crooked law
